Tribute to Ruban Arumugam

A week of mourning has been observed by the Tamil community to commemorate the life of Dr Ruban Arumugam, tragically killed in an automobile accident on his way home from Dubbo Base Hospital on June 22nd 2009. A brilliant pediatrician and passionate human rights advocate, Arumugams passing and contribution to the medical world were acknowledged in Australian parliament and triggered national debate over the gruelling hours faced by medical professionals.

Ruban anna I don't want to say bye

In a world of thorns & prickles He chooses to take one from a land that blooms Yet we stand strong and fight on with memories you leave us with Ruban anna, I don't want to say bye

*Our country is on fire,
Our houses no more,
Our people dying of hunger and more
As you selflessly try and do more Yet, He leaves you with us no more,
Ruban anna, I don't want to say
bye*

*He can take all that blooms, from us
But, your contagious smile, He can not Your blood, sweat and tears you dread for others. He can not The love and passion you shared with us, He can not Nothing can take you away from us Your love and passion will live forever...*

*The truth is, Ruban anna, HE can't take you from us at all!
That's why; I don't want to say
BYE!*

May you rest in peace! Your love and passion will live forever....
